

A review of the Architecture and Life of H. Jack Begrow, AIA

And his influence on the “Look” of Charlevoix

A program of the Charlevoix Historical Society

Sunday, July 18

4:00—5:00 pm Program

5:00—6:00 pm Reflection on Begrow’s Life

At the Depot @ Depot Beach, Charlevoix

Licensed architect Harold Jack Begrow, AIA, (b. 1930—d. 2019) known as Jack, practiced architecture in Northern Michigan for more than 50 years. His extensive travels in Europe influenced his designs for Charlevoix properties including storefronts, restaurants, homes and most of the local condominiums.

This program will review Begrow’s architectural style from 4:00-5:00 pm. From 5:00-6:00 pm we invite people who knew Jack to share stories about his life, projects, or adventures. This program will be given by Jack’s daughter, Janet Begrow Chambers, who grew up in Charlevoix and now resides permanently in Charlevoix. While this program is free of charge, donations to the Charlevoix Historical Society are always appreciated.
